

Welcome to Late Night Groove, the improjam evening by the dance company of the Volkstheater Rostock.

Late Night Groove strengthens the connection between all artists and audience members and stands as a symbol for peace, friendship and freedom!

How would you like to groove with us?

- as a musician: Would you like to contribute your musical talent? Then just bring your instrument and be an active part of the evening. If you need equipment such as amplifiers or microphones, please let us know in advance (contact by email: tanzcompagnie.vtr\(at\)rostock.derostock.de).) Please be there one hour before the start so that the technical set-up can take place.
- as a dancer: Would you like to move at Late Night Groove and let your own body speak? Then come in comfortable clothes in which you feel good and can move. You are welcome to join us from one hour before the start or only at the entrance with the spectators. Please get in touch with us: tanzcompagnie.vtr\(at\)rostock.derostock.de).
- as a spectator: You just want to watch, cheer and be part of it? Then make yourself comfortable on a cushion and enjoy the show!

General information:

Please always remember that Late Night Groove is in the spirit of mutual exchange and that a respectful and safe interaction has top priority. The evening will provide space for artistic freedom, but we expressly reject discrimination, harassment and violence in any form. Always think of your counterpart!

To ensure that the evening is a great experience for everyone involved and that we have to act in the interests of safety, we will meet at the Volkstheater Rostock box office at least 15 minutes before the start of the groove on the evening in question. We will then all go to the ballet studio together. Please remain quiet in Foyer, in order not to disturb ongoing performances or concerts.

When entering the ballet studio, all participants must remove their shoes! If you have any further questions or comments, please feel free to contact us by email at: tanzcompagnie.vtr\(at\)rostock.derostock.de).

We're looking forward to seeing you!
